

California Road Charge Technical Advisory Committee Member Biographies

Lisa Bartlett – Supervisor, Orange County Regional Transportation Agency Representative

Lisa Bartlett currently serves as the Fifth District Supervisor for the County of Orange on the Board of Supervisors. She is proud to serve the 650,000 residents in South Orange County in her role on the Board of Supervisors and the eighteen other boards and committees, including the Orange County Transportation Authority Board of Directors, Transportation Corridor Agencies Board of Directors, CalOptima, Orange County Local Agency Formation Commission, and the Orange County Fire Authority.

Supervisor Bartlett has had an esteemed career in public service and the private sector. She first entered into public service in 2006 when she was elected to the Dana Point City Council and served two terms as mayor. Prior these endeavors, she earned a Bachelor's degree in Finance from Cal State Fullerton and a Master's degree in Business Administration from Pepperdine University. Her professional career spans several decades and includes holding executive management positions in a worldwide computer software company, a project management consulting firm and several law firms. She is also a Certified PMP (Project Management Professional) and a licensed Real Estate Broker.

Supervisor Bartlett strives for increased transparency and efficiency in every aspect of government. Her top priorities include improving public safety, regional mobility, water resources, and healthcare.

Supervisor Bartlett was born and raised in Southern California, and has been a proud resident of Orange County for the past 29 years.

Supervisor Bartlett has always been actively involved in philanthropic work and several non-profit organizations such as Children's Hospital Queen of Hearts Guild, the Monarch Beach Sunrise Rotary, and the Ocean Institute.